ALL QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

A Reference Library Within Easy Reach of Everybody.

Everyone who reads, everyone who mingles in society, is constantly meeting with allusions to subjects with which he needs and desires further information. In conversation, in trade, in professional life, on the farm, in the family, questions are constantly arising which no man, whether well read or not, can always satisfactorily answer. If the facilities for reference are at hand they are consulted, and not only is curiosity gratified, but his stock of knowledge is increased, and perhaps information is gained and ideas suggested that will directly contribute to the success of the party concerned. And how are these facilities for reference to be had? How are the millions to procure this library? How are they to obtain the means of informing themselves with respect to persons and places, on questions of art and science, religion and politics, literature and philosophy, commerce and manufacture? How can the workman hope to bring within his reach the whole circle of sciences and other points of human knowledge that has developed up to the present day?

The Encyclopedia Britannica answers all of these questions and can now be procured at less than one-fourth the regular price, and at the unheard of rate of 10 cents a day.

For the convenience of those busily engaged during the day, THE TRIBUNE Encyclopedia reading rooms at 437 Spruce street will be kept open evenings. A pleasant hour can be spent in looking over the volumes, even though you do not care to purchase. Or drop a postal to THE TRIBUNE "E. B." department, and a volume will be sent to any part of the city for examination free, or the full set of twenty-five volumes can be secured for a limited time at $1.95 per volume, on easy monthly payments. The offer cannot be continued indefinitely. You mean to have a library. Why not begin at once?

COURT HOUSE NOTES.

The award of arbitrators was set aside by the court in the case of F. W. Stegman against H. C. Will.

M. C. Clark, candidate for select council in the Sixth ward, yesterday filed objections to the certificates of nomination of Patrick Golden for the office of select council and Michael J. Ryan for the office of common council. Mr. Clark says the papers purport to have emanated from a Democratic caucus, but that the caucus was not held under the rules of the Democratic party and the candidates do not represent the policy of that party. The objections will be argued next Saturday morning.

NEWS FROM WEST SIDE

Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Hyde Park Readers.

THIEVES WORK IN THE MORNING

They Enter the House of John Doud, on Sherman Avenue, and Steal $295 from a Bureau Drawer—Elias Lawrence's Narrow Escape from Death During an Exciting Runaway—Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Cars Get Off the Track.

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 128 North Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.]

A daring robbery was committed at an early hour yesterday morning at the home of John Doud, on Sherman avenue, while the occupants slumbered. The thieves entered through a window on the side of the house, and money amounting to $295 was taken from a bureau drawer in a bedroom on the ground floor. All the other drawers in the bureau were ransacked and some of the goods stolen. Patrick Scott, a workman who resides in the vicinity, saw the open window while on his way to work, and remarked to Mrs. Doud that they must feel rather warm to have the window open. Mrs. Doud knew that she did not leave it open and immediately investigated. It was then that the family discovered its loss.

Narrow Escape from Death. An exciting runaway occurred yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in which Elias Lawrence, of Lafayette street, had a narrow escape from death.

Lawrence started from his home with a horse attached to a light buggy and drove slowly down the street. When nearing Lincoln avenue the animal became frightened and dashed off at terrific speed. When Summer avenue was reached the horse reared and Lawrence was thrown from the seat. The buggy was upset, but the animal kept on. The buggy separated at the king bolt and the young man was thrown into the road. He still clung to the reins with a death-like grip, and in this manner was dragged through the mud until the horse was brought to a standstill. How Mr. Lawrence escaped with only a few cuts and bruises is a mystery. The vehicle was badly wrecked and was strewn along the road in fragments.

Archaeology of Scranton.

The Archaeology of Scranton commenced its winter session last evening in St. David's church on Jackson street. Rev. Edward Henry Eckel, rector of the Trinity church at West Pittston, spoke on "The Church of America," with its relation to the church of England. Rev. E. J. Bales, rector of the Trinity church of Carbondale, spoke on "The Mission in America." The service will be continued this evening.

Car Off the Track. While an engine was backing a train of Delaware, Lackawanna and Western cars into the coal outlets at the Oxford breakers, one of them jumped the track at the Scranton street crossing and the rest became badly tangled up. The car was thrown off on the upper side and the flag station was knocked over. Fortunately no one was injured.

His Barn Was Robbed.

John Flanagan, of Hampton street, was surprised yesterday morning by finding that his barn had been broken into by thieves during the night. When he went to the barn yesterday morning it was found that the lock on the barn door was broken off, and that two geese and about 250 pounds of feed had been taken.

McKinley Republican Club.

There will be a meeting of the Fifth ward McKinley Republican club this evening, at its club room in the French roof building on Washburn street. Every member is requested to be present, as business of importance will be transacted and action taken for increasing the membership.

A New Organization.

A meeting of all those who have signed the petition giving their intention to join the new organization known as the English Iovites will be held this evening at the Philadelphia rooms on South Main avenue for the purpose of perfecting a permanent organization. Fifty signatures have been obtained, among them some of the best citizens of the West Side.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

Trial Trip Made on the Greenwood Extension of Electric Road.

A NEW GLEE CLUB ORGANIZED

Organist John Lentes to Be Instructor—Number Ten School in Unsanitary Condition—Republican Caucus Tomorrow Evening—Ferdinand Schmidt Much Improved. Shorter Paragraphs.

Car 51, in charge of General Manager Archer, made a trial trip over the Greenwood extension yesterday afternoon. The car was in charge of Motorman John Sizs and Conductor Miles Folger. The following persons beside Mr. Archer were in the car: P. S. Page, Superintendent Gormley, Master Mechanic Archer, Giles Skeen, Evan Bebb, Andrew Conlon, Will Pace, Al Hayda, M. J. O'Toole and a Tribune reporter. Rev. John Longhman boarded the car at Minooka, as did John Kelly, the extension contractor. The trip was uneventful. All along the line merry rhymes danced and shouted, and "gimme a ride, mister," was frequently heard.

The trip was not as successful as it might have been, owing to the fact that the feed wire was not cut into the power house, and the only power was given by means of a connection with the South Side trolley wire. This will be remedied this morning, and the schedule will be arranged and put in force at once.

A New Glee Club.

Several South Side young men have formed themselves into a glee club and permanent organization will be effected tomorrow evening. John Lentes, organist at the Hickory Street Presbyterian church, will be instructor, and it is expected that the young men will have reached such a degree of proficiency at Easter that they will be able to sing at divine service. The personnel is as follows: John F. Scheuer, Jacob Schunk, A. F. Westphal, Jacob Cristophel, John Frichel, William Erhardt, William Ziesman, Fred Hermann, Fred Heing, William Mauch, William Greenwood and Fred Riehl. The young men do not as yet know what their voices are fitted for. This will be determined Wednesday evening and in all probability some name may be adopted.

Tear Down the School.

For some time Mr. Novz has been endeavoring to have No. 13 school razed, to be rebuilt as a preparatory school and in a manner suited to the requirements of modern architecture. The location of the property just fits it for Mr. Novz's views, and there seems no doubt that within a year or so at most he will see the realization of his hopes.

The building ought to be torn down on sanitary grounds. It should be an object of investigation by the board of health. There can be no doubt that it is unhealthy. Mr. Wagner was forced to give up teaching there on account of afflictions contracted by bad ventilation, and several had to be dismissed yesterday on the same account.

Republicans to Caucus.

The Republicans of the Nineteenth ward will caucus at Workmen's hall tomorrow evening. John Noll and Jacob Mantz are candidates for the office of school controller, and August Neils and Oscar E. Stranci are candidates for the office of councilor. The vigilantes are as follows: First district, Charles Hamm and Louis Schwanz; Second district, Henry Moir and George Naps; Third district, John P. Rink and Jacob Weissmann; Fourth district, August Englehardt and August Frautz.

Shorter Paragraphs.

Ferdinand Schmidt was some better yesterday morning. The doctors are now in hope that he has reached the highway to recovery. All hemorrhages have ceased.

Mrs. John Stebbes, of Meadow avenue, died yesterday morning. Deceased was 59 years of age. The funeral will take place Wednesday morning.

Select Councilman J. T. Connell had the city engineer corps at work yesterday making an estimate on the cost of improving Pittston and Prospect avenues at the culvert, and also the cost of extending the pipe drain from Stone to Prospect streets.

Foreman Andrew White sets a good example to the men of the William Connell and other city hose companies. Mr. White is one of the most zealous volunteers in the departments, and sleeps in the hose house nightly.

Miss Ella Clementine Rodgers lectured on Temperance before a large audience, at the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal church, Sunday evening. She is a pleasing speaker, and will make Scranton her headquarters for some time.

Fred, Murach, the iron fence builder, of Pittston avenue, is bound to a delicate operation Sunday. It was the result of an accident sustained more than a year ago.

John Duggan, of Pittston avenue, whose serious illness was referred in these columns, died Sunday night. He is survived by a wife and family of small children.

Leon, the four-year old daughter of Mrs. C. L. Weisswasser, had both feet scalded in a frightful manner yesterday.

NEW HOTEL FOR SCRANTON.

It Will Be Located Where the Forest House Is Now.

John Jernyn has decided to tear down the Forest House and replace it with a handsome 8-story modern hotel. Mr. Jacobus, the present lessee of the Forest House, will vacate the property April 1, and the work upon the new structure will begin at once.

The new hotel will occupy the entire space along Spruce street as far back as Oakford court. The Forest House at present only occupies about one-half of the lot.

Mr. Jernyn's new building will be constructed on the most modern and most approved plans, now being prepared by Architect John A. Duckworth. The ground floor will be devoted to stores, of which there will be three fronting on Wyoming avenue and a similar number on Spruce street. The remaining seven stories will be used for the hotel. The dining room will be located on the eighth floor and will be reached by three elevators. The new building will be of brick with stone roof.

Several thousand parts of the art portfolio came yesterday. A nickel takes this book of handsome pictures.

Don't crowd your place of business when you can get storage at 119 Franklin avenue.
